

Missouri Association of National Honor Societies

March 19, 2018

To Whom It May Concern:

On behalf of the MANHS Executive Board, I would like to recommend Brandon Lee White as a speaker for your event. Brandon recently presented at the MANHS State Convention and was a hit with our students and advisers! Brandon's "Own It" message was honest and relevant for our audience. His two keynote speeches were inspirational and timely for our students as we encourage advocacy of the four pillars of National Honor Society: scholarship, service, character and leadership.

As a bonus at our convention, Brandon provided ballroom dancing lessons to our students. The students were ecstatic to learn new dance steps as Brandon intertwined a message of leadership throughout the evening. And if that wasn't enough, Brandon stepped in at the last minute to cover for a presenter who was a last-minute absentee for one of our break-out sessions. What a special guy!

All in all, we couldn't have been more pleased with Brandon and his presentations. You will find Brandon to be professional and focused on what best suits the needs of his audience. Should you need more information, please contact me.

With warm regards,
Linda Whitford
